- Don't forget there are books for you on Bug Club.

Wellbeing – Reflections on 2021

Think back over the year we have had in 2021 – a year full of some highs and lows. What have you enjoyed the most this year? What were your special highlights with family and friends? Think about the different perspective you have about the things you value and appreciate now.

Design and make a card to send to someone before Christmas to tell them what they mean to you.
